Sentence Makeover

Part 1

Read the short paragraph below aloud and pay attention to the sentence structure. You will notice it sounds very choppy. Give the paragraph a makeover by creating smooth, flowing sentences. Think about where you can combine sentences with conjunctions and adverb phrases. If you want, finish the story on another piece of paper.

Gallando was a typical wizard. He spent his days reading spellbooks. Gallando made potions. Gallando also enjoyed waving his wand at unlucky toads. He ate lunch. He went to the wizard library. He found a heavy book of potions and spells that looked like it might make for an interesting afternoon. Gallando was feeling great excitement. Gallando checked out the book. He hurried home. His home was down the road.
