Draw the Shades of Meaning With Pictures #1

Some words are alike, but they have small differences that change their meaning. Those differences are called shades of meaning.

For example, think about the words walk and skip.

| | |
|---|---|
| walk | to move at a calm pace |
| skip | to move with a small hop or bounce |

Both walk and skip are types of movement, but they are movement in different ways.

Directions: Draw an image under each word to show its meaning. Make sure the images show how the two words in each pair are different!

1.

| big | enormous |
|---|---|
| | |

2.

| meal | snack |
|---|---|
| | |

3.

| sketch | paint |
