Name _____ Date _____

It's Grammar Time!

Subject + Verb + Object

A simple sentence structure includes a subject, verb, and object.

—The subject is a noun or noun phrase that is one of the main parts of the sentence. It performs the action in the sentence.

—The verb is the action or state of being.

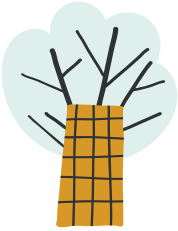
—The object is a noun or noun phrase that is affected by the action of the verb.

Example: Cat drives the bus.
subject verb object

Directions: Choose words and phrases from the chart of subjects, verbs, and objects to create sentences. After you create each sentence, read it aloud to see that the words are in the correct order.



Subject	Verb + Object
Petra and I	towed our vehicle to the shop
My teacher	assured me about my grades
The loud storm	had lunch together
The tow truck	concerned the dog

1. _____ _____ .
subject verb + object

2. _____ _____ .
subject verb + object

3. _____ _____ .
subject verb + object

4. _____ _____ .
subject verb + object

Your turn! Write two sentences with your own subject, verb, and object.

1. _____ _____ .
subject verb + object

2. _____ _____ .
subject verb + object

© ThuVienTiengAnh.Com