

Editor in Chief

4th
Grade

Choosing a Candidate

There's a disaster at the school newspaper—everything's jumbled and incomplete!

Washington D.C.— Who will win the presidential election? [To answer that question, you need to sit down and decide who will do the best job. That is the question on every American citizen's mind today.] Look at each candidate and what their position is on the economy, taxes, and other important issues. Figure out if the person is qualified for running our country. Being an informed voter is your duty as an American citizen, so take your time and make the write choice for you.

Sequencing?

York – Fashion
cannot attend, her
the favorite item
are the most pop
like something a great way to ors like gray, wh
ny color, the mo
s for girls and lo on everyone's

Table of Contents

Editor in Chief

How Do You Spell...? *
That's It - Period *
Sequencing
What's Your Evidence?
Talk, Talk, Talk *
Funnies
Batter Up *
Is Something Missing?
Person
Homophones *
I Want More
To Capitalize or Not To Capitalize? *
Combinations
Commas *
Advertising *

Certificate of Completion

Answer Sheets

* Has an Answer Sheet

Preface: A disastrous week at the school newspaper—everything’s jumbled and incomplete. Kids have “submitted” pieces of writing to proofread and edit.

HOW DO YOU SPELL...?

John has submitted the following post. It contains 10 spelling errors—can you find and correct them?

Directions: Circle or highlight each spelling error. Write the correct way to spell each word on the blanks below.

Chosing a Candidate

Washington D.C. – Who will win the presidenshial election? That is the question on every American citizins’ mind today. To ansur that question, you need to sit down and deside who will do the best job. Look at each candidate and what their poztion is on the economy, taxes, and other inportant issues. Figure out if the person is qualified for running our contry. Being an enformed voter is your dutee as an American citizen, so take your time and make the write choice for you.

Ex. Choosing

1. _____

6. _____

2. _____

7. _____

3. _____

8. _____

4. _____

9. _____

5. _____

10. _____

THAT'S IT – PERIOD

The period key on Mary's computer is stuck, so she doesn't know where her sentences start or end. Her article is missing all of the periods. Can you add them and capitalize the beginning of each sentence?

Directions: Write in all the missing periods. Underline a letter that should be capitalized 3 times.

New York, New York – Fashion Week has arrived! For those of us who cannot attend, here is the scoop on the latest fall fashions the favorite item for everyone is the hoodie solid colors are the most popular – particularly neon colors if you'd like something dressier than a hoodie, cardigans are a great way to stay warm go with more neutral colors like gray, white, brown, and black graphic tees of any color, the more creative the better, are very in boots for girls and loose-laced shoes for boys will be what is on everyone's feet, so go out and start shopping

SEQUENCING

Earl cut and pasted the points in his article out of sequence. Can you put them back in order?

Directions: Cut along the dotted lines. Rearrange the strips so that the article makes sense. Glue the strips down to the paper.

1

2

3

4

5

6

I tried so many different types of baked goods that the staff had to practically roll me out of there when I was done, but it was well worth it.

Not only did I find amazing desserts at Delicious Treats, I found great customer service as well. The staff was friendly, helpful, and gave out samples freely.

I highly recommend that you try out Delicious Treats. Whether you decide to eat in their bakery, or take it to go, you won't be disappointed.

Foodies, are you ready for another great place to grab dessert? I searched high and low for the perfect chocolate chip cookie, and I think I finally found it.

Besides the great food and great service, Delicious Treats is also unique because all of their ingredients are organic and come from local companies.

In my search for the perfect cookie, I asked many people who they thought sold the perfect morsel. The name Delicious Treats on 4th Ave., kept coming up, so I went down to check it out for myself.

WHAT'S YOUR EVIDENCE?

Antonio's opinion piece does not have enough supporting evidence. Can you help him?

DIRECTIONS: Put an X next to the 3 statements below that best support his opinion.

UNIFORMS MAKE SCHOOL SAFER

Many public schools are trying to decide if they should require students to wear uniforms. I believe school uniforms should be required to keep children safe, help everyone feel equal, and to increase learning.

EXAMPLE:

Some symbols, like skulls, on clothing are distracting to other students because they are not appropriate for school.

- Colors, symbols, and the way you wear your clothes can affect others around you.
- Students should not be allowed to wear ugly clothes to school.
- There are too many rules at school already.
- Some students' parents can afford to buy their children designer clothes, while others cannot.
- Students who wear shorts too low, or tops too short, can make other students feel uncomfortable, and make it difficult to pay attention to the lesson.

ANSWERS: 1, 4, 5

TALK, TALK, TALK

Sylvia's article includes dialogue. She's written down the sentences that need punctuation below, but isn't sure what to do.

Directions: Add punctuation to the sentences below.

Remember: Quotation marks only go around the talking part (the words that are coming out of a person's mouth).

You need to use a comma to separate the talking part from the non-talking part.

Ex. The firefighter yelled Stay away from the front door
The firefighter yelled, "Stay away from the front door!"

1. The mother cried Please save my baby
2. What room is she in asked the firefighter
3. Sara is on the second floor first door on the right replied the mother
4. Ill find her don't worry said the kind man
5. Thank you! Thank you! called out the mother as the firefighter ran into the house

FUNNIES

TIM FORGOT TO ADD DIALOGUE IN HIS CARTOON!

Directions: Add dialogue to the cartoons.

Remember: Quotation marks only go around the talking part (the words that are coming out of a person's mouth).

You need to use a comma to separate the talking part from the non-talking part.

Julia was trying to write a sports article, but kept confusing what happened at the baseball game yesterday with what's going on at the baseball game right now, and what might happen at the game tomorrow. Help her out by sorting the sentences in her article into past, present, and future.

Directions: Cut out the sentences at the bottom of the paper. Glue them into the column they belong in: past, present, and future.

PAST	PRESENT	FUTURE
The Padres won the game with a final score of 5-0.

The best hitter on the team is coming up to bat.

The pinch runner tore his calf muscle yesterday when he ran around third base.

The game will start at 6:00 p.m.

Experts say that Brian Thompson will hit four home runs against the Orioles tomorrow.

Steve Pages is rounding third, and it looks like he might make it to home!

IS SOMETHING MISSING?

Baban is having a hard time understanding that a complete sentence has a subject and a predicate.

DIRECTIONS: Please read through Baban's article about going to the fair, and mark all the complete sentences with a C, and all the incomplete sentences (also called fragments) with an I?

REMEMBER: A complete sentence should answer the questions:

- Who is the sentence about?
- What is he doing?

EXAMPLE: The child ran across the parking lot. Who? The child. What is he doing? Running across the parking lot. So, "The child ran across the parking lot." is a complete sentence.

1 _____ The boy waited in line for fair tickets.

2 _____ The people in front of John.

3 _____ Were waiting patiently for their turn.

4 _____ John went right to the Ferris wheel when he got inside the park.

5 _____ He jumped into the seat and buckled up.

ANSWERS: 1. C, 2. I, 3. I, 4. C, 5. C

PERSON

Jesse was asked to write an article from the first person, second person, and third person perspectives. When he was done, he forgot which one was which.

DIRECTIONS: Please help Jesse by writing first, second, or third by the correct version of each story.

REMEMBER: First person is when a character narrates the story with I, me, my, mine in his or her speech.

Second person is when the author uses the words you and your. S/he is talking directly to the reader.

Third person is when the reader is an outsider that is able to see the thoughts of everyone in the book. Most writers choose this point of view.

1

As you walk up the hill, you realize that it's just too quiet. There's no sound from the bird you know is almost always singing from the top of the maple tree. You think you see a shadow move high up on the slope, but when you look again it's gone. You get goose bumps on your arms.

2

As I walked up the hill, I realized that it was just too quiet. There was no sound from the bird who was almost always singing from the top of the maple tree. I thought I saw a shadow move high up on the slope, but when I looked again it was gone. I felt goose bumps pop up on my arms.

3

As she walked up the hill, she realized that it was just too quiet. There was no sound from the bird who she so often heard singing from the top of the maple tree. She thought she saw a shadow move high up on the slope, but when she looked again it was gone. She felt goose bumps pop up on my arms.

ANSWERS: 1. second 2. first 3. third

HOMOPHONES

Alicia wrote an editorial about her family, but mixed up the homophones.

Directions: Can you go through her article, and write the correct form of each homophone on the line?

Remember: A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word, but it is spelled differently, and has a different meaning. ex. here and hear

I was born into a family with won _____ little sister and too ex. two _____ older brothers. My older brothers were always competing with each other, and whoever one _____ never let the other live it down. My little sister was constantly following me around. I can't count how many times I herd _____ her say two _____ me, "I want two _____ come, to _____."

But, know _____ matter how much my siblings wood _____ annoy me when eye _____ was a child, I still new _____ that nothing was more important than family.

The newspaper just hired a new writer, and he is having a hard time being descriptive. His sentences are just too short!

Directions: Show him how to be a better writer by adding on prepositional phrases to his sentences.

Remember: A preposition is a direction word like: on, over, under, around, above, below, etc.

Example: I went to the store. → I went to the store in my brand new car.

1. The bird flew.

2. The hawks chased him.

3. The bird hid.

4. The little bird decided to find a new home.

5. He found the perfect spot.

TO CAPITALIZE, OR NOT TO CAPITALIZE?

To capitalize, or not to capitalize? That is the question. You need to figure out which words to capitalize.

DIRECTIONS: Practice on the article below by putting three lines under letters that should be capitalized, and crossing out letters that shouldn't be capitalized.

Everything started to shake! That is probably what You experienced last saturday if you live in Los angeles. The Earthquake scored a 4 on the richter scale. luckily, no one was hurt, and there was only a little damage done to buildings. The biggest problem was when the water main on thompson ave. broke and flooded the street. traffic was backed up for two hours.

“i would rather wait in traffic for two hours for a little earthquake than deal with a Big earthquake,” Said julie, one of the unfortunate people stuck in the jam.

COMBINATIONS

Sarah keeps repeating the same words in her articles. Help her get to the point by combining sentences.

Directions: Read the article. Figure out which sentences you can put together to make one sentence. Don't be afraid to take out words you don't need. Rewrite the paragraph below with the new, combined sentences.

Housing boom! The city is building 300 new houses in Charleston. The houses will be two story. The people of Charleston are really excited. The people of Charleston are really looking forward to more people moving in.

"We think the new people will bring business to our town. We think the new people will bring new ideas to our town," said Mrs. Swanson, resident of Charleston.

The housing development is expected to be done within two years. Those interested in buying a house can start picking out their property. Those interested in buying a house can decide what style of house they'd like.

Contact your realtor if you are interested in purchasing a new house.

COMMAS

Commas can be very tricky. The sentences below are from different articles that are missing commas.

DIRECTIONS: Add the commas that are missing.

REMEMBER:

- Commas go in a list of items of two or more.
- Commas go after transition words.
- Commas go between the day and year. They also go after the year if there are more words after the year.
- Commas go between the city and state. They also go after the state if there are words after the state.
- Commas go before a conjunction (and, or, but)

EXAMPLE: I'm going to travel to Little Rock Arkansas for Thanksgiving break.

I'm going to travel to Little Rock, Arkansas, for Thanksgiving break.

- 1 I need to buy strawberries apples bananas and grapefruit from the grocery store.
- 2 Next add two cups of flour to the mixture.
- 3 The food festival will start on July 13 2015 and go until August 2 2015.
- 4 Would you rather go to Sioux City Iowa or Lincoln Nebraska?
- 5 Finally get limes lemons and oranges for the juice.

ADVERTISING

Irwin is having a hard time coming up with titles for his ads. You explain to him that to write a good title, he should read the whole ad, and then decide what it is all about. Irwin should then come up with a title that describes the main idea.

Directions: Help Irwin come up with a title for each of his ads below.

Example: We need three bedrooms and at least two bathrooms. There should be yard space for two dogs. We need a one story house.

HOUSE NEEDED

1. The car is a 2010 Honda Accord, and it is in excellent condition. I'm asking for $10,500, or best offer.

2. The puppies are 6 weeks old, German Shepherds, and will be ready to leave their mother in two weeks. There are 2 boys and 3 girls. Both parents have good health records, and you are welcome to meet them.

3. I'm an experienced painter. I do free estimates, and charge $10 a hour when I start painting. I can do houses of all sizes, inside and out.

4. I have a Poodle and a Labrador who need to be walked two times a day. They are both very friendly dogs, and walk well on the leash. I'm willing to pay $8 an hour.

5. Saturday 9 am – 1 pm. We will be selling clothes, yard equipment, decorations, and house items. Our address is 12345 Light Way, Santee.

Great job!

is an ThuVienTiengAnh.Com writing superstar

Answer Sheets

Editor in Chief

How Do You Spell...?

That's It - Period

Talk, Talk, Talk

Batter Up

Homophones

To Capitalize or Not To Capitalize?

Commas

Advertising

Answer Sheet

Preface: A disastrous week at the school newspaper—everything's jumbled and incomplete. Kids have "submitted" pieces of writing to proofread and edit.

HOW DO YOU SPELL...?

John has submitted the following post. It contains 10 spelling errors—can you find and correct them?

Directions: Circle or highlight each spelling error. Write the correct way to spell each word on the blanks below.

Chosing a Candidate

Washington D.C. – Who will win the presidensial election? That is the question on every American citizins' mind today. To ansur that question, you need to sit down and deside who will do the best job. Look at each candidate and what their pozition is on the economy, taxes, and other inportant issues. Figure out if the person is qualified for running our contry. Being an enformed voter is your dutee as an American citizen, so take your time and make the write choice for you.

Ex. Choosing

- | | |
|---|--|
| 1.  presidential  | 6.  important  |
| 2.  citizens  | 7.  country  |
| 3.  answer  | 8.  informed  |
| 4.  decide  | 9.  duty  |
| 5.  position  | 10.  right  |

Answer Sheet

THAT'S IT – PERIOD

The period key on Mary's computer is stuck, so she doesn't know where her sentences start or end. Her article is missing all of the periods. Can you add them and capitalize the beginning of each sentence?

Directions: Write in all the missing periods. Underline a letter that should be capitalized 3 times.

New York, New York – Fashion Week has arrived! For those of us who cannot attend, here is the scoop on the latest fall fashions. The favorite item for everyone is the hoodie. Solid colors are the most popular – particularly neon colors. If you'd like something dressier than a hoodie, cardigans are a great way to stay warm. Go with more neutral colors like gray, white, brown, and black. Graphic tees of any color, the more creative the better, are very in. Boots for girls and loose-laced shoes for boys will be what is on everyone's feet, so go out and start shopping

Answer Sheet

Sylvia's article includes dialogue. She's written down the sentences that need punctuation below, but isn't sure what to do.

Directions: Add punctuation to the sentences below.

Remember: Quotation marks only go around the talking part (the words that are coming out of a person's mouth).

You need to use a comma to separate the talking part from the non-talking part.

Ex. The firefighter yelled Stay away from the front door
The firefighter yelled, "Stay away from the front door!"

1. The mother cried, "Please save my baby!"
2. "What room is she in?" asked the firefighter.
3. "Sara is on the second floor, first door on the right," replied the mother.
4. "I'll find her, don't worry," said the kind man.
5. "Thank you! Thank you!" called out the mother as the firefighter ran into the house.

Answer Sheet

Julia was trying to write a sports article, but kept confusing what happened at the baseball game yesterday with what's going on at the baseball game right now, and what might happen at the game tomorrow. Help her out by sorting the sentences in her article into past, present, and future.

Directions: Cut out the sentences at the bottom of the paper. Glue them into the column they belong in: past, present, and future.

PAST	PRESENT	FUTURE
The Padres won the game with a final score of 5-0. The pinch runner tore his calf muscle yesterday when he ran around third base.	The best hitter on the team is coming up to bat. Steve Pages is rounding third, and it looks like he might make it to home!	Experts say that Brian Thompson will hit four home runs against the Orioles tomorrow. The game will start at 6:00 p.m.

Answer Sheet

HOMOPHONES

Alicia wrote an editorial about her family, but mixed up the homophones.

Directions: Can you go through her article, and write the correct form of each homophone on the line?

Remember: A homophone is a word that sounds the same as another word, but it is spelled differently, and has a different meaning. ex. here and hear

I was born into a family with won one little sister and too ex. two older brothers. My older brothers were always competing with each other, and whoever one won never let the other live it down. My little sister was constantly following me around. I can't count how many times I herd heard her say two to me, "I want two to come, to too."

But, know no matter how much my siblings wood would annoy me when eye I was a child, I still new knew that nothing was more important than family.

Answer Sheet

TO CAPITALIZE, OR NOT TO CAPITALIZE?

To capitalize, or not to capitalize? That is the question. You need to figure out which words to capitalize.

DIRECTIONS: Practice on the article below by putting three lines under letters that should be capitalized, and crossing out letters that shouldn't be capitalized.

Everything started to shake! That is probably what you experienced last saturday if you live in Los Angeles. The Earthquake scored a 4 on the Richter scale. Luckily, no one was hurt, and there was only a little damage done to buildings. The biggest problem was when the water main on Thompson Ave. broke and flooded the street. Traffic was backed up for two hours.

“I would rather wait in traffic for two hours for a little earthquake than deal with a big earthquake,” said Julie, one of the unfortunate people stuck in the jam.

Answer Sheet

COMMAS

Commas can be very tricky. The sentences below are from different articles that are missing commas.

DIRECTIONS: Add the commas that are missing.

REMEMBER:

- Commas go in a list of items of two or more.
- Commas go after transition words.
- Commas go between the day and year. They also go after the year if there are more words after the year.
- Commas go between the city and state. They also go after the state if there are words after the state.
- Commas go before a conjunction (and, or, but)

EXAMPLE: I'm going to travel to Little Rock Arkansas for Thanksgiving break.

I'm going to travel to Little Rock, Arkansas, for Thanksgiving break.

- 1 I need to buy strawberries, apples, bananas, and grapefruit from the grocery store.
- 2 Next, add two cups of flour to the mixture.
- 3 The food festival will start on July 13, 2015 and go until August 2, 2015.
- 4 Would you rather go to Sioux City, Iowa, or Lincoln, Nebraska?
- 5 Finally, get limes, lemons, and oranges for the juice.

Answer Sheet

ADVERTISING

Variations are completely acceptable as long as they still have something to do with the main idea.

Irwin is having a hard time coming up with titles for his ads. You explain to him that to write a good title, he should read the whole ad, and then decide what it is all about. Irwin should then come up with a title that describes the main idea.

Directions: Help Irwin come up with a title for each of his ads below.

Example: We need three bedrooms and at least two bathrooms. There should be yard space for two dogs. We need a one story house.

HOUSE NEEDED

1. The car is a 2010 Honda Accord, and it is in excellent condition. I'm asking for $10,500, or best offer.

CAR FOR SALE

2. The puppies are 6 weeks old, German Shepherds, and will be ready to leave their mother in two weeks. There are 2 boys and 3 girls. Both parents have good health records, and you are welcome to meet them.

FREE PUPPIES

3. I'm an experienced painter. I do free estimates, and charge $10 a hour when I start painting. I can do houses of all sizes, inside and out.

DO YOU NEED A PAINTER?

4. I have a Poodle and a Labrador who need to be walked two times a day. They are both very friendly dogs, and walk well on the leash. I'm willing to pay $8 an hour.

DOG WALKER NEEDED

5. Saturday 9 am – 1 pm. We will be selling clothes, yard equipment, decorations, and house items. Our address is 12345 Light Way, Santee.

GARAGE SALE!
