Alice in Wonderland

by Lewis Carroll

Alice was beginning to get very tired of sitting by her sister on the bank and of having nothing to do. Once or twice she had peeped into the book her sister was reading but it had no pictures or conversations in it. And what is the use of a book thought Alice without pictures or conversation.

So she was considering in her own mind as well as she could for the hot day made her feel very sleepy and stupid whether the pleasure of making a daisy chain would be worth the trouble of getting up and picking the daisies when suddenly a White Rabbit with pink eyes ran close by her.

There was nothing so VERY remarkable in that nor did Alice think it so VERY much out of the way to hear the Rabbit say to itself Oh dear Oh dear I shall be late when she thought it over afterwards it occurred to her that she ought to have wondered at this but at the time it all seemed quite natural but when the Rabbit actually TOOK A WATCH OUT OF ITS WAISTCOAT POCKET and looked at it and then hurried on Alice started to her feet for it flashed across her mind that she had never before seen a rabbit with either a waistcoat pocket or a watch to take out of it and burning with curiosity she ran across the field after it and fortunately was just in time to see it pop down a large rabbit hole under the hedge.

From A Child's Garden of Verses, 1916

Robert Louis Stevenson wrote poems about things children see and do every day. Have you ever wondered why you have to go to bed when it's still light out in the middle of summer? Even though this poem was written almost 100 years ago, children in 1916 wondered the same thing!

DIRECTIONS

Circle the noun that is the subject of every clause.

Underline every verb that shows the action in each sentence.

Place a star next to every adjective.

Place parentheses ( ) around every preposition.

BED IN SUMMER

In winter I get up at night,
And dress by yellow candle light.
In summer quite the other way,
I have to go to bed by day.
I have to go to bed and see
The birds still hopping on the tree,
Or hear the grown-up people's feet,
Still going past me in the street.
And does it not seem hard to you,
When all the sky is clear and blue,
And I should like so much to play,
To have to go to bed by day?
