MAKING INFERENCES

Introduction

---

Answers aren't always right or wrong in this series. It's all about thinking things through and exercising reasoning skills. This workbook is about storytelling and filling in the gaps!

Read passages aloud with your child and have him practice his reading.

As you go through the Making Inferences and Cause & Effect pages with your child, help explore why he, or she, came to the conclusions that he did.

MAKING INFERENCES

What is happening in each picture?
Circle your best guess.

The chef is happily cooking a spaghetti dinner.
The chef is preparing breakfast for his family.

THE UGLY DUCKLING

It was a beautiful spring morning on a small farm near the woods. In a cool, shaded corner, a duck built a warm nest to sit on her four precious eggs. Strangely, one of the eggs was much larger than the rest. To her excitement, the eggs started to rumble and crack. One, two, three eggs popped open, and three little ducklings poked their heads into the world. At the same time, the oddly large egg began to crack as well. To the mother's surprise, a big gray duckling stumbled out of the egg. Although he was different, and not as cute as the other ducklings, she loved him nonetheless. The next day, the duck introduced her family to the other animals on the farm. Seeing the strange gray duckling, the pig, duck and mouse burst out laughing.

The poor duckling bowed his head in shame as he felt he didn't belong. That night, as his family slept near the barn, the gray duckling decided to leave on a journey to find himself. Before long, he ran into a kind old woman, her rooster, and her cat. She invited him into her home, and they all treated him like family. Over the year, the little gray duckling began to grow. Although he was happy, he always felt something was missing. One day, as he stared out on the pond, he saw a family of beautiful swans wading in the cool breeze. Something inside him wanted to go swimming with the swans. As he approached the pond, he saw his reflection for the first time. The ugly gray duckling had grown into a beautiful swan! From below, the cat and rooster happily watch their friend fly high in the sky. Finally, the little gray duckling had found himself.

THE UGLY DUCKLING

Oh no, the story has been all jumbled up. It's up to you to cut out the images and make the story make sense again.

Bonus Activity: Color in the images with your favorite colors.

CAUSE & EFFECT

A cause is the reason why something happens. An effect is what happens.

Cause
Because Rachel studied,

Effect
she got an A on her test.

CHOOSE THE ENDING

Read each story beginning. Then, circle the sentence ending that makes the most sense.

Ben was walking home from school when he found a wallet full of money. His parents had always taught him to be honest. Ben picked up the wallet and...

- kept on walking.
- tried to find the owner.

Sammy woke up to a giant snow storm. She checked the temperature gauge on the wall and it was 10 degrees Fahrenheit. Sammy decided to wear...

- her heavy coat and boots.
- a light jacket and sneakers.

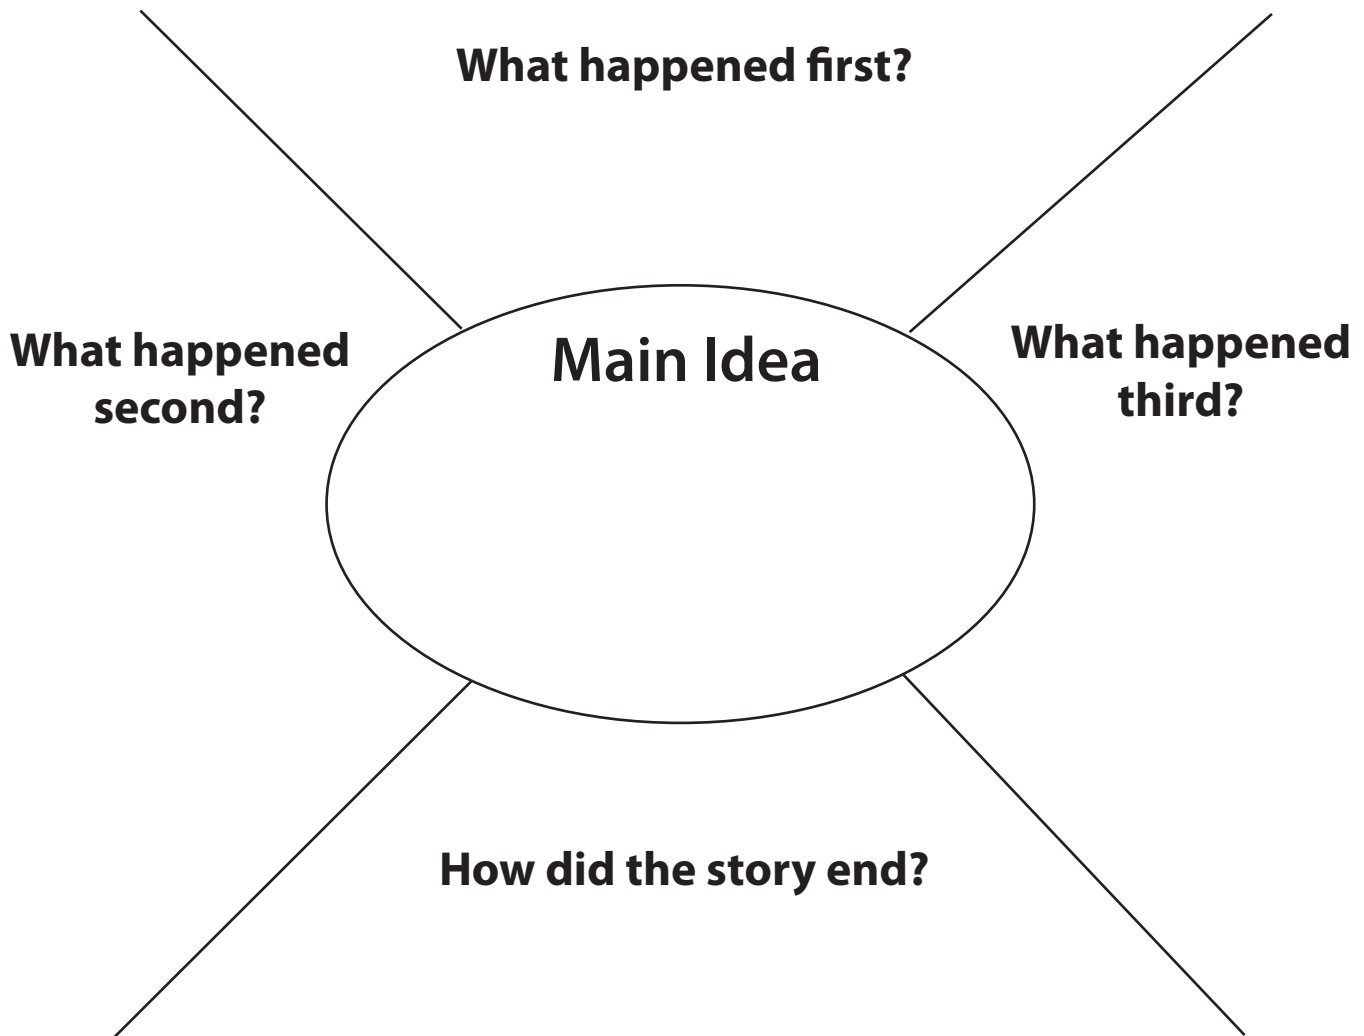

Chris has been practicing all year for the big game. His pitching has really improved over the season. On the first pitch of the game, he...

- threw a nice curveball.
- kicked the ball to the batter.

Map the Story

Read the story below. Using what you've read, fill in the story map.

Mila wanted to ride her bike. Her mother told her to put on her knee pads. Mila didn't like to wear knee pads, so she didn't put them on. While riding down the sidewalk, Mila fell off of her bike and scraped her knee. She went home and apologized to her mom, promising to wear her pads from now on.

MAP THE STORY

Read the story below. Using what you've read, fill in the story map.

"Mary was excited! Today was the day of her tea party lunch! She had invited three friends to join her for tea and sandwiches, so she knew she had to get busy in the kitchen before her guests arrived. Mary decided to make her favorite lunch... peanut butter and jelly sandwiches! First, she spread peanut butter on four slices of bread. Next, Mary began to spread grape jelly (her favorite) onto the peanut butter. Then she remembered that two of her friends did not like grape jelly. Quickly, she found the strawberry jam in the cupboard and spread it on to the last two peanut butter slices. Mary covered each sandwich with a second slice of bread and then cut each sandwich in half. She placed them on a tray right next to her beautiful china teapot. Suddenly the doorbell rang... Mary's tea party guests had arrived, and just in time for lunch!"

FILL IN THE STORY

Complete the story by writing in the empty boxes below.

BEGINNING

Sara and her brother Kevin were getting ready to fly to Texas to visit their grandparents. This would be the first time either of them flew without their mom or dad. Before they left, Sara's mom said, "Make sure to look after your brother and your bags!"

MIDDLE 1

After they reached their gate, Sara's brother said he was hungry. Since there was still a lot of time left before their flight left, Sara took her brother to get something to eat.

MIDDLE 3

Their plane was getting ready to take off, and they still had not found their missing bags!

FIND THE MAIN IDEA

The main idea is the most important idea of a story or paragraph. The main idea tells what the story or paragraph is mostly about. Read the stories below carefully and circle the correct main idea of each.

Susie threw the Frisbee for Pete. The Frisbee landed in a tall tree. It was stuck in the branches. Pete barked and barked. Then a gust of wind blew the Frisbee loose. Pete finally caught the Frisbee. He stopped barking and started wagging his tail instead.

What is the main idea?

1. Pete barks at squirrels in the tree
2. Pete is excited to play fetch with his toy.

The three little birds patiently waited for their mom to return with lunch. Their stomachs grumbled as they thought about their favorite food: worms! It was a windy day so it took their mom longer to return. They played a game to keep their minds off of lunch. When their mom returned, they quickly ate up the worms.

What is the main idea?

1. The little birds were very hungry.
2. It was a windy day.

Scott was having a very busy day. He needed to write a report, answer the phone and check his email. His boss came by and dropped off some papers. At noon, he quickly ate his lunch. When he returned to his desk he checked his messages and got back to work.

What is the main idea?

1. Scott ate his lunch after work.
2. Scott is having a very busy day at work.

Find The Main Idea

The main idea is the most important idea in a paragraph. Sometimes, the main idea is the first sentence. Sometimes the main idea is in the middle or at the end. Read the paragraphs carefully. Circle the main idea.
