

Advanced Pronoun Review

Circle the correct bold pronoun to complete each sentence below.

1. Do the chefs at the new Italian restaurant make (its / their / theirs) own pasta from scratch?
2. The mountain path is steep and rocky, so (it / they / them) might be difficult to climb.
3. Although several people contributed ideas to our lyrics, we wrote the song (ourselves / yourselves / themselves).
4. If you're not busy on Saturday, would you like to attend the concert with Julia and (I / me / myself)?
5. When (we / you / they) started walking home, Jeremiah and Mateo didn't realize it would be so cold and snowy.
6. During the summer months, the donut shop on the boardwalk opens (its / their / his) doors promptly at 6 a.m.
7. While relaxing in their hammocks on a sunny afternoon, Sarah and Luke had to remind (ourselves / yourselves / themselves) to reapply sunscreen.
8. When (she / her / herself) and Melanie first started raising money for the sea turtle rescue, Fiona worried that no one would donate to the cause.
9. Savannah had finally finished the detailed diagrams showing how each table needed to be decorated for the gala, and she couldn't wait to show (it / them / her) to the decorating committee.
10. Mason's cat looks a lot like (mine / ours / his), except my cat has three white paws instead of two.
11. After we pulled the weeds from our uncle's garden, he poured fresh iced tea for (us / you / them) to enjoy.
12. Despite never having made ratatouille for us before, Charlie prepared the entire batch (himself / itself / ourselves).
13. If you all need anything else from the supply room to build the sets, please help (ourselves / yourselves / themselves).
14. University students get early access to tickets for the playoff game, but (we / you / they) have to get up early to wait in line.
15. It took a long time for Omar and (I / me / myself) to learn the rules of chess, but now (he / him / himself) and I teach others how to play.