

All About Adverbs: To What Extent

An adverb is a word that modifies words other than nouns. Some adverbs describe to what degree something happens.

Directions: Read the sentences. Use the word bank to complete each sentence. Some words will be used more than once.

1. The cowboy almost won the rodeo competition.
2. The train just left 15 minutes ago.
3. I emptied my locker completely.
4. The runner barely made it to the finish line.
5. Playing with a cobra is very dangerous.
6. We arrived at the theater incredibly late due to the long ticket line.
7. The ticket price is quite a good deal.
8. Katie is extremely good at chemistry.

Word Bank

almost just completely quite incredibly very barely extremely

