

Name: _____

Date: _____

ANSWERS - Students' responses will vary

Answering Questions About Wild, Wild Weather

Part 1 Record important information about two types of weather on the T-chart.

Tornado	Waterspout

Part 2 Use the selected conjunction and sentence frame to answer each question.

1) How often does extreme weather affect people?

Conjunction: but

Weather is something that affects us every day, but (conjunction word) extreme weather usually only affects people a few times in their lives.

2) Why is it important that people study the weather?

Conjunction: and

People study weather, and (conjunction word) inform people about the weather in order to keep them safe during extreme weather.

3) How do tornadoes cause destruction?

Conjunction: because

Tornadoes cause destruction because (conjunction word) winds can form up to 300 mph
_____.

4) Waterspouts can form over which types of bodies of water?

Conjunction: or

Waterspouts can form over the ocean, or they can form over smaller bodies of water.