Alexis turned his head sideways and kept thinking over and over again about what he had done wrong. He could not figure it out.	She jumped up and did a little dance. She had gotten an A on the test!	His mom was hurrying around, but Jerome took his time as he vacuumed and mopped the floor. His aunt was always late, so he'd take his time getting ready. He was sure she would not be on time.	Trevor looked down at his watch one more time, wondering where the bus was already. He knew he'd get in trouble if he was late.
