

Conjunctions, Commas & Clauses

Add a comma to separate the clauses properly. Answers

Example

We planted a flower however it hasn't grown at all.

We planted a flower , but it hasn't grown at all.

↑ The comma is usually placed before a conjunction.

YOUR TURN!

1. I studied all night, but still got a C-.
2. Mary finished the race, but she did not come in first place.
3. Carrots, which are my favorite food, are currently growing in my garden.
4. The salmon, which I personally caught, tasted great.
5. Devon doesn't enjoy loud places, nor does he enjoy taking the bus.
6. The party was over, but the crowd did not want to leave.
7. It was my dad's birthday, so we all went out for dinner.
8. The day was cloudy, but that didn't stop us from going to the park.
9. I was thinking of going fishing today, or maybe I'll go swim at the beach.
10. I have many rare rocks in my collection, for example, this old fossil right here.
11. I finished all the broccoli, but I still had to eat my peas.
12. This flower smells great, but this rose looks beautiful.
13. My brother, who annoys me constantly, put toothpaste in my shoes.
14. California, also known as the Golden State, has a lot of beaches.