Name	Date	Answer	Ke

Comparative and Superlative Adjectives

A comparative adjective is used for comparing two people or things.

A superlative adjective is used for comparing three or more people or things.

	djeciive. idii	Comparative. Tal	ilei	Superiorive. railesi	The state of the s
I. Use the correct forms of the adjective "large" in the sentence below.
Aı	na's cookie is	larger		than her brother	's cookie, but their father took
th	e la	argest (cooki	e from the jar.
2. Use the correct forms of the adjective "cheap" in the sentence below.
Tł	nis book is	cheap		, but that book is	cheapest .
3. Use the correct forms of the adjective "long" in the sentence below.
Н	er hair is	longer		than it was last year,	and now it is the _	longe	est of an	nyone	in her class.
4.Use the correct forms of the adjective "thin" in the sentence below.
Μ	lom makes	thinner		pancakes than Dac	d does, but Grandma makes
th	e th	innest (of all.
5.Use the correct forms of the adjective "cold" in the sentence below.
lt	was	colder	_ tho	an usual in Mrs. Clarke'	s classroom, but it felt
th	e co	ldest	in Mr.	. Hammond's classroon	n.			