Conjunctions #3

A conjunction is a word that joins together words, phrases, or parts of sentences. Some common conjunctions include: and, or, but, for, nor, yet, so.

EXAMPLE: I like to play baseball, but I also like swimming.

Part 1: Underline the conjunctions in each sentence below, and add the comma in the correct place.

1. The baseball player was hit by a pitch, yet he stayed in the game.
2. Maria and Charlotte are best friends, but they do argue from time to time.
3. Grant watched the fishing show, and then he went outside to play.
4. Holly spent an hour on the phone, yet she still finished all her homework.
5. Peter and Dennis stayed up until midnight, so they were tired the next morning.

Part 2: Now write your own sentence and circle all the conjunctions. Then draw a picture based upon your sentence.

Answers will vary, but should include at least one conjunction and correctly placed comma.
