

Context Clue Matching

DIRECTIONS: Use the context clues in each sentence to figure out the meaning of the word in bold. Then find the direct definition on the cards and write it on the line.

Direct Definition Cards

to bring in or put into	a person who watches	to believe	a person who checks things out items collected for review	to fall down	a large pile or mound	a thief

- This summer, I have a feeling I'll be a spectator to all the fun my friends will be having while I'm sitting on the sidelines. a person who watches
- Autumn sends kids back to school, like a crook who's stashed summertime somewhere long forgotten. a thief
- I suspect there will be good times during my trip to the amusement park. to believe
- My little sister will most likely spend her days looking for specimens down at the creek behind our house. items collected for review
- When I return I'll have to import my pictures into my online vacation journal. to bring in or put into
- After day-long hikes, the only thing I want to do is collapse onto my bed. to fall down
- An inspector came by the museum after the painting went missing. a person who checks things out
- After the barbecue there was a heap of refuse because the trash cans had overflowed. a large pile or mound