

CORRECT SPELLING ERRORS #2

Certain words such as plural and possessive nouns, contractions, and homophones are often confused with one another. In your writing, pay close attention to these words and make sure you are using them correctly.

Directions: Identify the error in each sentence. Cross it out and write the correct word on the line.

Example: Trinity turned bright red with ~~embarrasment~~ after she called out the wrong answer in class, but Mr. Kim's smile helped her laugh about it and move on.

embarrassment

- 1 Safa tried to figure out if the allowance she received in a month would cover the cost of new ski ~~goggles~~. goggles
- 2 Rowan's family made a breakfast feast of omelets and pancakes on Saturday before spending the ~~hole~~ day at the bluegrass festival. whole
- 3 The company's digital marketing campaign used powerful imagery to help ~~acheive~~ its goals. achieve
- 4 Some species of sharks, like the great white, can ~~loose~~ and replace more than 20,000 teeth in their lifetime. lose
- 5 Jeremiah agreed that if we go to his dance performance ~~tommorrow~~, he'll try a watercolor painting class with us. tomorrow
- 6 If you go to the Santoro ~~families~~ new Italian restaurant, you must order the pumpkin ravioli! family's
- 7 Abigail wrote a screenplay for an ~~independant~~ film called Eternal Mountains that featured a story about the realities of living in a village located at the base of a towering volcano. independent
- 8 Makayla and Elise spent a lot of time planning ~~there~~ boat trip from the Great Lakes all the way to Mobile, Alabama. their
- 9 After inspecting the size and shape of the package, Samuel was not ~~surpised~~ when he opened the box to reveal the art easel that he had been hoping for. surprised
- 10 When she heard that the Read to Tots program was short-staffed and in need of volunteers, Mila was eager to help and said she'd ~~defiantly~~ sign up. definitely