

Monster Grammar! Double Negatives #5

A double negative is a statement which contains two negative words. If two negatives are used in the same sentence, the sentence takes on the opposite meaning.

some negative words: no, not, nobody, nothing, none, never, can't, couldn't, didn't, haven't, nowhere, hardly, scarcely, barely, only

Circle the word in parentheses that best completes the sentence.

- 1. The hideous, slobbering monster could not find (any, no) humans to eat!
- 2. The vampire (couldn't, could) hardly stay awake during the day.
- 3. During the day, the werewolf barely had (any, no) fur.
- t. We did not see (anybody) nobody), but we saw a lot of oozing slime!
- 5. "I don't have (anything) nothing) to do!" whined the little monster.
- 6. The second grade monster (was) was not) barely six feet tall.
- 7. The grandpa vampire couldn't find his false fangs (anywhere) nowhere).

Monster Joke!

Q: What's big, heavy, furry, dangerous, and has 16 wheels?

A: A monster on roller skates!

