

Grammar Basics: Object Pronouns #2

A pronoun is a substitute for a noun.

A subject pronoun is the subject of the sentence. Answer Key

FOR EXAMPLE:

_____ Shelly put the pastries on cooling racks. / noun		_____ She put the pastries on cooling racks. / pronoun
---	--	---

An object pronoun is the object of the sentence.

FOR EXAMPLE:

_____ Shelly put the pastries on cooling racks. / noun		_____ Shelly put them on cooling racks. / pronoun
---	--	--

DIRECTIONS: Select a pronoun that could take the place of the bolded noun in each sentence.

his	you	he	she	it	we	they	me	him	her	us	them
-----	-----	----	-----	----	----	------	----	-----	-----	----	------

1. it Deliver the lunch order to Yan and Eric.
2. her Corey was excited to bake his grandmother's recipe.
3. we Elaine, Rich, and I took our dog, Lana, to the park.
4. they The Betty Bakers were once known for their tasty eclairs.
5. his Harvelene brought Arthur's phone to the picnic.
6. they "My knives aren't going to cut it!" yelled Kathy.
7. they Luxury cars and sport utility vehicles tend to be gas guzzlers.
8. we Johanna and I both love to sing in the shower.
9. they Many new laws have changed the way people drive.
10. them You can purchase the bowls on the shelf at the front counter.