

Remember: Nouns are the names of people, places, things, and ideas. Special types of nouns are pronouns and proper names.

Underline the nouns in the following sentences.

The tired boy walked slowly home from school.

When did Mother bake the cake?

I thought we were going to the movies tonight.

Elizabeth shouted with happiness at the thought of a party.

Are you going to share that dessert?

Jeff and Caleb were late for the first day of school.

---

Write a noun in the blank to complete the sentence. Examples of correct answers:

The horse galloped through the forest.

A bird sang in the cage.

Many green leaves fell from the tree.

Often a criminal is sent to jail.

---

The underlined nouns in the following sentences are scrambled. Change the nouns to make the sentences correct.

Maria ran down the street.

The dog had a house of its own

What time is the birthday party?

My sister has three cats.