

Plural Possessive Nouns

A possessive noun shows ownership. A plural possessive noun that ends in s is made by adding an apostrophe ( ' ) at its end.

ANSWERS

Both girls' noses are red.

---

Circle the plural possessive nouns.

doctors      cats'      farmer's      books'      blankets papers'      mouse's      singers      floor's      computers'
cities      hand's      cookies'      houses'      glasses

---

Rewrite each sentence to include a plural possessive noun.

1. The desks of the students are new. The students' desks are new.

2. The parents of my friends had a bake sale. _____
My friends' parents had a bake sale.

3. I mowed the lawn of my neighbors. _____
I mowed my neighbors' lawn.

4. She knows all the names of the actors. _____
She knows all the actors' names.

5. The horns of the cars are loud. The cars' horns are loud.

6. Girls invaded the treehouse of the boys. _____
Girls invaded the boys' treehouse.