

Possessive Pronouns Answer Key

Pronouns take the place of nouns in a sentence. A possessive pronoun shows ownership.

Whose face is on the quarter?

Circle the possessive pronouns.

my      your      you      its      our      her      him his      your      their      there      whose      you

Rewrite each sentence to include a possessive pronoun with the noun.

1. I saw the dog that belongs to you. I saw your dog.
2. The coat that belongs to me is warm. My coat is warm.
3. This is the house that belongs to Sue. This is her house.
4. Tim's brother is five years old. His brother is five years old.
5. The horse's leg is sore. Its leg is sore.
6. Dad is driving the car that belong to us. Dad is driving our car.

Some possessive pronouns can stand alone. These pronouns include yours, mine, ours, hers, his and theirs.

Complete each sentence with a possessive pronoun that stands alone.

1. This room belongs to my sisters. This room is theirs.
2. Those glasses belongs to you. Those glasses are yours.
3. These books belong to Bruce. These books are his.
4. Two of these dollars belong to me. Two of these dollars are mine.
