

Name _____ Date _____

Homophones:

They're or Their

Their and they're sound the same, but they have different meanings!

- Their is a possessive pronoun. Their house is red.
- They're is a contraction meaning "they are."
They're planning to picnic in the park this weekend.

Complete the sentences with the correct homophone: their or they're.

1. I love cats because they're small and fluffy.
2. The graduates received their diplomas.
3. These toads are jumping high because they're happy.
4. The married couple put their pictures on the wall.
5. The chicks always follow their mother.
6. The twins are not allowed to drive the car because they're too young.
7. I love to eat at Sushi House because their food is yummy.
8. They're going camping near the seashore this summer.

