

Name _____

Date _____

Homonym Fun

ANSWERS

Instructions: The clues on this worksheet will give you a hint about two different words that sound the same but have different meanings. See if you can think of the words!

---

A number that looks like a vertical infinity symbol, or what your friend just did to your cookie. eight, ate

What you call your dad's sister, or a preliminary bet when you're playing poker. auntie, ante

The way a sailor or pirate says "yes," or the hole in a needle. aye, eye

A slang term for your best friend, or a large coastal body of water attached to an ocean or lake. bae, bay

To cry very hard, or a round toy. bawl, ball

A group of musicians that play together, or a book that some people don't want others to read. band, banned

When something is completely naked, or a furry animal that lives in the woods. bare, bear

The bottom support for something, or the lowest notes in a song. base, bass

