

How Much Vs. How Many

(answer sheet)

Circle the correct answer.

What type of noun is “how many”? countable uncountable

What type of noun is “how much”? countable uncountable

Choose the word that does not fit with the phrase given.

How much?

- | | | | | |
|-------------|-----------------|-------------|---------------|-----------------|
| a. money | b. trees | c. candy | d. walking | e. items |
| time | coffee | sleep | apples | tea |
| eggs | water | toys | hair | grass |

How many?

- | | | | | |
|-------------|--------------|----------------|------------------|-----------------|
| a. shoes | b. ways | c. wood | d. times | e. sugar |
| pairs | smoke | bananas | songs | dogs |
| salt | pickles | flowers | ice cream | tears |

Fill in the blanks with either “much” or “many”.

- 1.) How many pears are in the refrigerator?
- 2.) How much milk is in the refrigerator?
- 3.) How many things do you need at the store?
- 4.) How many pieces of chicken would you like?
- 5.) How much chicken should I cook?
- 6.) How much did that dress cost?