Name:	Date:

Identical Idioms

Idioms are sayings that have a figurative meaning that is different from the literal (real) meaning.

It's raining cats and dogs out here!

Figurative Meaning: It's raining a lot.

Directions: Connect the idioms that have the same meaning. Then, write the idioms in the column with the correct meaning.

- 1. It was a breeze.
- 2. My flowers kicked the bucket.
- 3. I want to get straight to the point.
- 4. We'll get a raise when pigs fly!

- A. Let's cut to the chase.
- B. I want them to win, but I won't hold my breath.
- C. I can do it with my eyes closed.
- D. My plans bit the dust.

This is easy!

It was a breeze.

I can do it with my eyes closed.

It died.

My flowers kicked the bucket.

Our plans bit the dust.

Let's hurry this up!

I want to get straight to the point.

Let's cut to the chase.

This is unlikely to happen.

We'll get a raise when pigs fly!

I want them to win, but I won't hold my breath.

Create 3 sentences using at least 3 different idioms.

1.

2. _____

3. _____