

Introductory Clauses

Use commas after introductory clauses. Common starter words for introductory clauses include after, although, as, because, if, and many more. It is good to remember to place the comma after the clause when followed by a very extreme contrast.

Example

While I was driving , my mother called me.

COMMA

INTRO. CLAUSE

YOU TRY

Place a comma after each introductory clause in the sentences below.

1. Because Sally's car was broken , she couldn't make it to the interview.
2. If you don't feel good , you should go home.
3. Once it stops raining I will walk you home.
4. Since we got caught in traffic , we missed the show.
5. Although I received a poor grade on the test , I still passed the class.
6. As of tomorrow , we will be on vacation.
7. If you finish your chores , you can go out and play with your friends.
8. Holda was still upset , although she had already won the event.
9. To find a good seat , it is necessary to arrive at 9:00.
10. Yes , I would like to go camping with you guys.
11. While I was walking , the cat ran up the tree.
12. When our parents get home , we should be finished with our homework.