

It's Grammar Time: Prepositional Phrases 1

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition.

- They create a more detailed explanation for the reader.
- They tell when and where.

Answer Key

Directions: Complete the sentences below with a prepositional phrase from the Word Bank that matches the context of the sentence. An example has been done for you. Hint: Not all the prepositional phrases will be used!

Word Bank

over the tree	through the night	against the best team	for the birthday party
beside the car	with my teacher	under the water	behind the big chair
around the room	in the school cafeteria	out the front door	until the end

Example: We won the championship game against the best team.

- We stood beside the car while we waited for our mom to unlock it.
- The storm continued through the night with thunder and lightning.
- The scuba diver is able to breathe and open her eyes under the water.
- The movie started late, but we stayed awake until the end.
- I looked up as the bird flew over the tree.
- The excited dog ran in circles around the room.
- Our cat ran out the front door and into the neighbor's yard.
- I go to morning tutoring so I can practice my math facts with my teacher.
- We bought cupcakes, balloons, and party hats for the birthday.
- Every day at lunch, our class eats together in the school cafeteria.