

ANSWERSGrammar Time: Prepositional Phrases 2

A prepositional phrase is a group of words that begins with a preposition.

- They create a more detailed explanation for the reader.
- They tell when and where.

Directions: Complete the sentences below by adding a prepositional phrase that begins with the preposition in parentheses. An example has been done for you.

Example: I played the piano (at) at the recital.

Student answers will vary, but may include:

1. We went to the park (with) with the neighborhood kids.
2. The plane went up (in) in the clouds.
3. The puppy was found (under) under the porch.
4. We ran (toward) toward the end zone.
5. Please return the library book (to) to the library.
6. Noise could be heard (through) through the wall.
7. Have you ever been (over) over the mountain?
8. During recess, we jump (on) on the hopscotch game.
9. The pencil fell (off) off the desk.
10. Be careful (around) around the busy street.

Challenge! Create a sentence with a prepositional phrase. Use the preposition across.

Student answers will vary
