

Name: _____

Date: _____

Answer KeyIt's Grammar Time: Relative Pronouns (Who, Whom, Whose That, Which)

A relative pronoun connects a noun with a relative clause that gives more information about the noun.
who	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refers to the subject of the sentence. Can be replaced with the pronouns I, he, she, we, and they. 	There is a dog who has white spots.
whom	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refers to the object of the sentence. Can be replaced with the pronouns me, him, her, us, and them. 	My sister was the person to whom I was speaking.
whose	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refers to possession, or ownership. 	I know someone whose tree grew tall.
that	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refers to things. The meaning of the sentence would change without the word and the relative clause. 	The show that I watched started at 7:00pm.
which	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Refers to things and animals. The meaning of the sentence would not change without the word and the relative clause. (It is additional information.) 	The show, which lasted an hour, was funny.

Directions: Write the correct pronoun from the Word Bank on the line provided.

- The student who dropped the papers must clean it up.
- This is the painting that I made in art class.
- He is the player to whom the award was given after the game.
- The birthday party, which is on Saturday, will be outside.
- The musician whose band played loudly performed on stage.
- The dinner that I helped cook last night was delicious.
- A tornado, which touched down on the ground, destroyed four homes.
- The teacher whose class was polite received a good report from the substitute.
- He is the boy to whom I told the information.
- A brother is someone who will teach you things and look out for you.

Word Bank

who whom whose

that which

Directions: Write a sentence using a relative pronoun of your choice from the Word Bank. Circle the relative pronoun in your sentence. Student answers will vary
