It's Grammar Time!

Subject + Verb + Object

A simple sentence structure includes a subject, verb, and object.

- —The subject is a noun or noun phrase that is one of the main parts of the sentence. It performs the action in the sentence.
- —The verb is the action or state of being.
- —The object is a noun or noun phrase that is affected by the action of the verb.

Example: Cat drives the bus. object

Directions: Choose words and phrases from the chart of subjects, verbs, and objects to create sentences. After you create each sentence, read it aloud to see that the words are in the correct order.

Subject	Verb + Object
Petra and I	towed our vehicle to the shop
My teacher	assured me about my grades
The loud storm	had lunch together
The tow truck	concerned the dog

l	Petra and I	had lunch together
	subject	verb + object
2	My teacher	assured me about my grades
	subject	verb + object
3	The loud storm	concerned the dog
	subject	verb + object
4	The tow truck	towed our vehicle to the shop
	subject	verb + object

Your turn! Urite two sentences with your own subject, verb, and object.

l	Student sentences will vary.
	subject	verb + object
2.
	subject	verb + object	_ `