

Kitchen Safety

Q: What should you do before, during, and after you cook something on the stove?

A: Before cooking make sure the stove is cleared of flammable material. While food is being cooked on the stove, do not leave it unattended. Be careful of steam, which can cause burns. After cooking, clean the area and check that the stove is turned off.