LEARNING CHINESE

NUMBERS 1-10

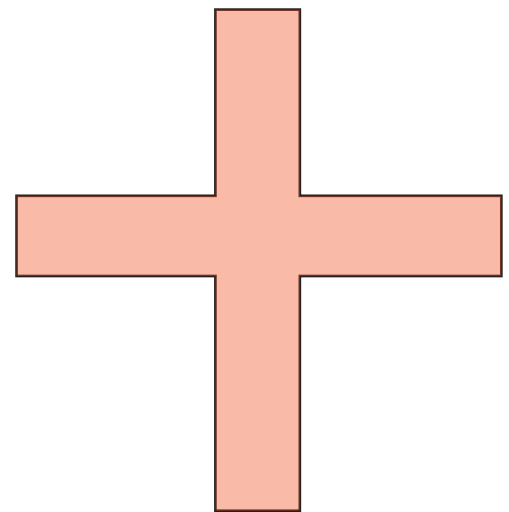

In Chinese, the number 10 is pronounced “shí” and is written as 十. Color in both the Hindu-Arabic numeral and Chinese word for ten below. Then follow the prompt in the space below to draw ten of another type of fruit!

tip: practice saying the number out loud as you color it in.

(Students' color choices will vary.)

10

Draw TEN strawberries. Then count them in Chinese, using the words below.
