

Let's Go Down to Pronoun Town

Circle the pronouns in the sentences below and then write them in the proper buildings. If there are two provided in parentheses, circle the one that agrees with its antecedent and then write it on the building. When you are done, all of the stories of the buildings should be filled.

Definite		Possessive
it		his
she	Indefinite	her
he/she	someone	his	Relative
she		his	who
they	whoever	her	who
he		my	who
he	whichever	her	that
they	anyone	its
it

- When Sarah delivered the package she had someone sign for it.
- The chef who runs the restaurant took his recipes to the cooking contest and (he/she they) won third place.
- Suzanne tried to lift her crates but she determined (it they) were too heavy.
- Stephan went to meet his basketball team with his favorite ball, but when he got there he found out that (they she/he) were gone.
- The person who was supposed to drive us to the movie can't come because her car broke down.
- Whoever took my bike without asking had better give it back!
- Just pick whichever sandwich you want and move down the line.
- Anyone who disagrees with the queen should write a letter and deliver the message to her paige.
- The show that just ended was two and a half hours long and its plot was terrible!