Magnificent Bears!

Directions:

1. Read the sentence aloud to a partner.
2. Highlight the underlined word and read it aloud 2 times.
3. Figure out the meaning of the underlined word by using sentence level context.

1. Giant pandas are black and white bears. They live in bamboo forests, high up in the mountains of central China. Giant pandas are magnificent bears, meaning many people think they are very beautiful.

The word magnificent means very beautiful.

I know this because the text says many people think giant pandas are very beautiful.

2. Baby pandas are very heavy. They can weigh between 165 and almost 300 pounds!

The word weigh means how heavy something is.

I know this because the text says baby pandas are very heavy.

3. When cold weather begins to appear and winter comes to, or approaches, central China, giant pandas come down from the top of the mountain to find warmer weather.

The word approaches means when something comes near.

I know this because the text says that winter comes to, or approaches, central China.
