

AFRICA

Fill in the blanks with the correct city provided in the box.

Cape Town was a stop in the trade route from Europe to the Indies.

Cairo, Egypt's capital, is a very old city along the Nile River and is located near the Giza Pyramids.

Johannesburg is the largest city in South Africa and is known for its gold and diamond trade.

Luxor was previously known as Thebes and is home to many ancient Egyptian monuments, temples, and tombs.

Nairobi is the capital of Kenya and attracts visitors who want to embark on a safari.

Fes is an ancient walled city with maze-like streets in Morocco.

Casablanca has developed into a modern, economic city with European influence.