

SOUTH AMERICA

Fill in the blanks with the correct city provided in the box.

Rio de Janeiro is one of the largest cities in Brazil and is home to the Christ the Redeemer statue.

Santiago is Chile's capital and is known for its modern style and architecture.

Lima is known for its Historic Centre, which contains buildings from the Spanish colonial era.

Bogota is located in Colombia and was founded in 1538. The city's style is influenced by French culture.

Caracas, the capital of Venezuela, is built along Mount Avila and the Caribbean Sea.

Buenos Aires has been a port city into Argentina and is known for its German and Italian influences.

La Paz is located in Bolivia and is unique because of its high elevation.