

AnswersMETAPHORS

A metaphor is the comparison of two things that are usually very different, but alike in at least one way. Writers use metaphors to describe something and let the reader discover the way the things are alike.

We gazed at the grapefruit moon.

The author is comparing two unlike things: the moon and a grapefruit. The comparison helps the reader imagine what the moon looks like because the reader knows what a grapefruit looks like. The moon must be round, dimpled, and somewhat yellow.

INSTRUCTIONS:

Fill in the blanks, identifying what is being compared and how they are alike.

1. My sister is a couch potato. a. sister b. couch potato

How are they alike? They don't do anything.

2. Your bedroom is a pigpen. a. bedroom b. pigpen

How are they alike? They are messy.

3. My mom is an angel. a. mom b. angel

How are they alike? Both are virtuous.
