

ANSWER SHEET*Mixed Word Study Review Part 1*Directions: Underline the adverb(s) in each sentence.Example: Becky crawled quietly under the table.

- Mateo enjoys going to the movies often.
- The robber barely escaped the bank just as the police officers arrived.
- My dad normally takes the garbage out every Wednesday.
- Fantastic Mr. Fox likes to sing loudly at night in spite of what the neighbors say.

Directions: Write an adverb to modify the verb in the following sentences. Student answers will vary.

- Little Red Riding Hood skipped merrily through the forest on her way to her grandma's house.
- Startled by the explosion, the dog barked furiously, further scaring the neighbors.
- Francisco usually visits his aunt in San Jose every summer break.

Directions: Circle fragment or sentence for each of the following sentences. If they are fragments, rewrite them as complete sentences.

8. The doctor, who was mildly sick herself, hobbled lethargically into the room to attend to her sick patient.	Fragment	Sentence
Complete sentence:
9. Unfortunately, the newest addition to the dance team.	Fragment	Sentence
Complete sentence: Student answers will vary. Unfortunately, the newest addition to the dance team, is unable to make it to practice today.
10. Mom was so excited to run into her high school friend.	Fragment	Sentence
Complete sentence:
11. Ran and ran until he hit a brick wall.	Fragment	Sentence
Complete sentence: Student answers will vary. The zombie ran and ran until he hit a brick wall.

Directions: Read the paragraph and underline the words that have an affix. Then write the affix (prefix or suffix) on the line along with its definition.

My cat Fluffy is somewhat overweight. She's very playful during the evenings but I cannot get her to exercise more than a few minutes. I am powerless when she looks up at me with her big green eyes and begs for food. While I realize she is fatter than the average cat, I refuse to believe that her health is being affected. I've noticed lately that she is restless when she sleeps; perhaps she is having cat dreams. She's an adorable pet and, in my opinion, the greatest companion.

Affix (Prefix or Suffix)	Definition
-ful	full of
-less	without
-er	more than
-less	without
-est	superlative; the most

Directions: Write an antonym and a synonym for each word below. Then use one set of antonyms or synonyms in a sentence. Student answers may vary.

Word	Antonym	Synonym
happy	sad	content, ecstatic
large	small, tiny, miniscule	huge, gigantic, big helpful	helpless, useless	beneficial, cooperative, useful
shy	outgoing	timid
hungry	stuffed	ravenous
wild	tame	savage, uncivilized, free

Sentence:

Sample answer: Nicole would like to be a more outgoing person, but she can't deny that she is really quite timid.