

Part 2: Using Visual Clues to Make Inferences

ANSWER SHEET

Introductory Phrase Word Box

The author shows	Based on the visual clues in the picture
The visual shows	Based on the illustration
	Based on the visual

1. The visual shows _____ the narrator's reaction to the news about the town pool.
2. The author shows _____ how John Henry has to wait outside the store through one of the illustrations.
3. Based on the illustration _____, the reader understands how the boys feel when they work together.
4. Based on the visual _____, it appears that John Henry is sad as he waits for his friend.

Note: Students' answers will vary, however, they should include their inferences from Part 1.

_____ Visual elements offer clues about the meaning of a story. The illustrations in _____ Deborah Wiles' Freedom Summer allow the reader to discover information the author doesn't actually state in the text. For example, based on the visual clues in one of the illustrations, I can infer that _____ (example introductory phrase) (example inference) the narrator is so excited to play with John Henry that he can't help but wait outside for him to arrive.

_____ (introductory phrase)

_____ (inference #3)

_____ (introductory phrase)

_____ (inference #4)

Lastly, _____ (introductory phrase)

_____ (inference #5)