Point of View: In Someone Else's Shoes

1. Who is telling the story? How do you know?

A narrator is telling the story. I can tell that the person telling the story is not actually a character in the story. There are key words such as she and they.

2. What is Nina's opinion about becoming friends with the new girl? How do you know?

Nina thinks that it is difficult to be the new girl. She has experienced it, and she felt fear and she cried.

3. Nina sees that being the new kid is difficult. How would you feel in that situation?

Student answers will vary

4. Rewrite the story from Nina's point of view. (Hint: Be sure to use first-person point of view words such as I, me, we, and us as you write the story as if you are Nina.)
