

Polish the Personal Narrative

Read the personal narrative below. As you read, look for correct capitalization and punctuation. Cross out words or punctuation that need to be changed and write the correct version instead.

Answer

The rain fell from the sky as I left the house. By the time I got to school, I was soaking wet. I walked into the classroom and my teacher gave me a look. I saw that I was standing in one giant puddle!

