

Name: _____

Date: _____

Present Participle Party

A present participle is a present tense verb ending in -ing that means the verb is happening right now or continuously. Change the verbs below to present participles. The first one is done for you.

- 1) Jordan is baking a birthday cake for Hannah.
(bake)
- 2) Nora is calling Hannah's friends to tell them about the surprise party.
(call)
- 3) Elijah is blowing up purple and blue balloons.
(blow)
- 4) Yoon is making Hannah a card.
(make)
- 5) Hannah's friends are arriving.
(arrive)
- 7) We are hiding behind our couch, waiting for Hannah.
(hide)
- 8) Hannah is knocking on the door!
(knock)