

Adding Punctuation

Add the correct punctuation marks to the spooky sentences below.

1. “Are you going to go haunting tonight?”, the ghost asked.
2. I’m either going to be a vampire, a mummy, or a witch for Halloween.
3. Would you like a trick or a treat?
4. The witch’s brew contained three frog legs, two bat eyes, vampire blood and werewolf hair.
5. The vampire flew all around the city, but had to return to his coffin before sunrise.
6. “Eek!”, yelled the girl, when a spider landed on her arm.
7. Frankenstein didn’t want to return to the laboratory.
8. I wasn’t sure if I should go through the graveyard at night.

Which building does Dracula visit in New York?

The Vampire State Building.

