

Match the Idioms: Rainy Day Classroom Story

Can you replace the underlined text with its matching idioms?

Directions: Place the numbered story frames you cut out from page 1 in the correct order. Read the story out loud. Now, add the correct idioms below the story frame with the corresponding underlined text. How is the story different with idioms?

1. The rain came down very hard as I waited for my school bus.  It was raining cats and dogs.	2. When the bus came, I hurried and slipped. The bus driver told me to slow down.  The bus driver wanted me to hold my horses.	3. I sat by my favorite friend Emma, who is so nice. She helped me study for a test.  Emma is the apple of my eye.	4. Emma whispered that she had a snack to share after school, but to keep it a secret.  Emma didn't want me to let the cat out of the bag.
5. When a boy in front of us asked us what we were whispering about, I was quiet.  I buttoned my lip.	6. When we got off the bus, I told Emma I was very nervous about the test.  I was on pins and needles about the test.	7. Emma made me feel better when she said the test would be easy for me.  Emma thought my test would be a piece of cake.	8. I had good news to share with Emma after school. I got an A on my math test!  I told Emma that I nailed my test.