Reading & Understanding Metaphors

A metaphor is a figure of speech that compares two unrelated things by saying they are the same. In order to understand a metaphor, you must think about how the two things are alike.

Directions: Underline the two things that are being compared in each metaphor. Then, complete the sentence frame that follows.

Example: Raquel is a cheetah when she plays soccer.
Raquel and a cheetah are alike because they both run fast.

1. The snow is a white blanket, covering the earth and trees.

Snow and blanket are alike because they both _____ cover things

2. On rainy days, our classroom is a zoo.

Our classroom and a zoo are alike because they both _____ can be wild

3. The ballerina was a graceful swan when she danced on stage.

A ballerina and a swan are alike because they both _____ are graceful

4. My brother is a total pig whenever we have pizza for dinner.

My brother and a pig are alike because they both _____ eat a lot

5. Last night, the stars were brilliant diamonds shining in the sky.

Stars and diamonds are alike because they both _____ are shiny

Directions: Read the short story and underline a metaphor. Then, complete the sentences that follow.

Antonio nervously walked through the dark jungle. He heard strange sounds all around. The green vines were snakes, hanging from the trees. Dry leaves crunched under his feet. Antonio started to walk faster. He knew his mother was waiting for him at their house by the river. Finally, he saw it up ahead. The rushing water was a song that welcomed him home.

In this story, the author compares water and a song.

These two things are alike because they both make sound.
