Realistic Writing

It didn't actually happen, but it could happen! Realistic fiction includes characters and events that could be real. Plan a story that fits the genre of realistic fiction!

In the spaces below, plan a story that could be realistic fiction. Write the names of characters, the problem, plot, setting, and any surprise details that are a part of your story in the graphic organizer below.

Characters (Who will be in the story?) 	Three brothers: Joe (10 years old) Mathew (15 years old) Jeremy (12 years old)
Problem (What problem do the characters face in the story?) 	The brothers went hiking in the mountains and got lost.
Plot (What are the events in the story? Make sure to put the events in order!) 	<ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. The brothers decided to go hiking during their summer vacation and packed everything.</li><li>2. As they were climbing the mountain, their phone lost its signal and they got lost.</li><li>3. It was getting dark and they could not find their way.</li><li>4. They had to camp in the woods.</li><li>5. Several days later, they were rescued by a helicopter that saw their distress signal.</li></ol>
Setting (Where does your story take place?) 	The Rocky Mountains
Surprise Details (Think about details that might surprise your reader or be unexpected.) 	The brothers find a cabin that they thought was abandoned, but it really belonged to a hermit!
