

Scrambled Similes

These similes are all mixed up. Use the given list of words to find the best match to complete each simile.

1. Agatha's dog, Morty, is incredibly fast. He can run like the wind
2. Mr. Kennedy's new science book is as heavy as a(an) anchor
3. Jamison put new batteries in my flashlight. Now it shines like the sun
4. Cecilia looked out the window of the airplane to see the people way down below. They were as tiny as ants
5. The van was barely large enough for the Scorpions soccer team. They were packed in like sardines
6. Oscar wasn't woken up by the earthquake last night. He sleeps like a(an) baby
7. Alberto could see for miles ahead. The road was as flat as a(an) pancake
8. Pauline couldn't believe how hot it was today. She thought she was going to fry like a(an) egg
9. Mrs. Turner talks non-stop! Her mouth moves like a(an) motor 10. The students in Mr. Turner's class lined up straight as a(an) arrow

anchor

ants

arrow

motor baby

egg

pancake

sardines sun

wind

Use your own imagination to finish these similes

- I'm exhausted after swimming across that river. It's as wide as...
Answers will vary.
- Before he got a haircut and shaved his arms and legs, he was as hairy as...
Answers will vary.
- Lucy broke her arm after falling off her skateboard. It hurt so bad, she said it felt like... Answers will vary.
- Ronald is very unorganized. His room is as messy as...
Answers will vary.

