VERBS

Ser or Estar

Let's review the differences between "ser" (to be) and "estar" (to be).

Ser is used...
- To describe a permanent quality
- To tell the time or date
- To tell place of origin
- To tell nationality
- To show possession

Estar is used...
- To describe location
- To describe a temporary condition
- To describe a temporary feeling

Practice using "ser" or "estar" in the following sentences.

Ben _____está_____ cansado.
Ben is tired.

Tú _____eres_____ interesante.
You are interesting.

Sara _____está_____ felíz.
Sara is happy.

Los lápices _____son los_____ míos.
The pencils are mine.

Nosotros _____estamos_____ mojados.
We are wet.

Susana _____es_____ alta.
Susana is tall.

Yo _____soy_____ de Chile.
I am from Chile.

Ellos _____están_____ amables.
They are nice.

Ella _____es_____ mi madre.
She is my mom.

Mi abuela _____está_____ en la recamara.
My grandmother is in the bedroom.

Maria y Juan _____están_____ en el estadio.
Maria and Juan are in the stadium.

Bela _____es_____ caniñosa.
Bela is sweet.

Tomás _____está_____ nadando.
Thomas is swimming.

Tú _____estás_____ en la biblioteca.
You are in the library.