

Sort the Sentences: Simple or Compound #1

A simple sentence is a sentence with only one subject and predicate.

A compound sentence is two simple sentences joined by a comma and a conjunction such as and, but, or, or so.

Cut out the sentences below. Paste them into the correct category.

Simple Sentences	Compound Sentences
The sun shines brightly through the window.	I want to play outside, but it is raining.
The store on Spruce Street sells fresh rolls of bread every day.	The dog barked, and the cat ran away quickly.
Stella carefully packed her bag to visit her grandparents.	Michael practiced hard for the game, so he felt ready to win.
The butterfly landed on a colorful yellow flower.	Jane could buy the shirt, or she could save her money for the movies.

The dog barked, and the cat quickly ran away.	Stella carefully packed her bag to visit her grandparents.
The store on Spruce Street sells fresh rolls of bread every day.	Jane could buy the shirt, or she could save her money for the movies.
Michael practiced hard for the game, so he felt ready to win.	The butterfly landed on a colorful yellow flower.