

Name: _____

Date: _____

Sorting out Sensory Words

Read each clue. Using the word bank, decide on the sensory word that best matches the context. Then, write it in the blank beside each clue.

Answer Key

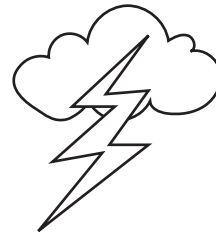

Word Bank

rotten	sopping	bland	rumbling	tart	mumbling medicinal	silky	smoky	crowded	prickly	muscular

Example:

bland: food that has no flavor

1. rumbling: a sound that thunder might make

2. silky: how satin feels when you touch it

3. rotten: the taste of spoiled food

4. muscular: having a lot of muscles

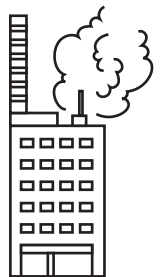

5. crowded: when there are a lot of people at one location

6. sopping: completely soaked with water

7. smoky: characteristic of a burning building

8. mumbling: speaking very quietly and muffled

9. medicinal: smelling like medicine

10. prickly: feeling very sharp when it is touched

