

Answers Subject Nouns and Their Pronouns

A subject is who or what the sentence is about. The subject is usually a noun.

A noun is a person, place, thing, or idea.

A pronoun (I, you, he, she, it, they, we) is a word that takes the place of a noun or noun phrase.

Example: Robert likes to do magic tricks. He often practices at recess.

Noun

Pronoun

Directions: Read each sentence. Circle the subject noun and its pronoun.

1. Cheetahs are the fastest animals in the world. They can run up to 70 miles per hour.
2. Tennis is a sport that has been played around the world for hundreds of years. It is a low-impact sport, so people of all different ages and abilities can pick it up.
3. Eleanor Roosevelt was born in 1884. She was the First Lady from 1933 to 1945.
4. Pizza was created in Italy in the late 1800s. It became popular in the United States after World War II.
5. Camels can reach up to 7 feet in height. They can weigh up to 1500 pounds.
6. MLK Jr. is the nickname given to Martin Luther King, Jr. He graduated from high school at the age of 15.

Directions: Add a pronoun in the space provided to complete each sentence.

1. The octopus changes its color to match its surroundings. It is also able to change the way it swims.
2. Beethoven moved to Vienna, Austria, when he was a young man.
3. Temple Grandin was born in Massachusetts in 1947. When she was just two years old, her doctors discovered she had autism.
4. The bald eagle has a yellow beak, eyes, legs, and feet. It likes to eat fish.
5. The Wright brothers are famous because they were the first to fly an airplane.
6. Wolves live in packs of six to ten. They go long distances to hunt for food as a pack.